Forecast For Northeast England
Issued by Met Office Exeter
at 1600 on Sunday 04 Apr 2021

++ Valid for broadcast between 1800 and 0600

Headline:
Turning much colder Monday, with some snow showers. Windy.

This Evening and Tonight:
A band of cloud and rain moves quickly southwards this evening, followed by clear spells. A second area of cloud with sleet and snow follows this. Drier, clearer and significantly colder later with a widespread frost. Becoming windy. Minimum temperature -3 deg C (27 deg F).

Monday:
A much colder day, with strong northerly winds and coastal gales. Largely dry and sunny inland, but some snow showers are likely at times, mainly towards North Sea coasts. Maximum temperature 6 deg C (43 deg F).

Outlook for Tuesday to Thursday:
Staying cold, bright Tuesday, with snow showers along North Sea coasts. Widespread frost overnight. Cold, dry and sunny Wednesday and less windy. Somewhat milder on Thursday with rain at times.

(C) Crown Copyright 2021. Published by the Met Office.